

AMPTHILL & FLITWICK

Summer School Code of Conduct

Ampt Hill & Flitwick Flyers will provide:

- England Athletics qualified and CRB checked coaches
- A safe environment during the coaching session
- Structured coaching sessions with a variety of activities over the duration of the course
- A warm welcome and praise and encouragement of student's efforts
- Familiar faces each coaching session
- A designated area for parent's or guardians who would like to watch training in progress
- Access to the Club Welfare Officer
- The assurance that a Summer School student will not be released from a session with anyone but the parent/guardian signed overleaf without prior arrangement.

As a parent I will:

- Act with consideration, showing respect to others: coaches, students and other parents at all times
- Ensure that my child acts with consideration to others and follows the code of conduct as set out here
- Ensure the timely transportation of my child to and from the summer school
- Remain in the designated viewing area once the session is underway unless invited onto the track by a coach or in the case of an emergency

As a student I will:

- Act with consideration, showing respect to others: coaches, other students and parents at all times
- Refrain from acting in a way that may put my safety or the safety of others at risk
- Wear appropriate footwear and clothing
- Pay attention to and act upon coaches instructions at all times during a coaching session,
- Refrain from using phones during a session and/or bringing MP3 players, games consoles etc. to the coaching session

Please note: Failure of a parent or student to adhere to the code of conduct will initially result in a warning. Subsequent breaches may result in removal from a session or from the summer school.
